Workshop Description

Come and immerse yourself in an indulgent art experience. Explore how to use line and colour with sensitivity and meaning as well as reach into our own lives to create a work of personal and emotional depth. Forget everything you have heard about art and open up to new possibilities. No experience necessary.

About your instructor:

Kelly Ulrich – kellybenay@hotmail.com

Kelly is a painter, graphic designer, illustrator, and teacher. She is a graduate of Emily Carr College of Art and Design and has taught children, teens and adults painting, drawing, and life drawing for over seven years through the Neighbourhood Art Studios in Langley and White Rock. Kelly lives in Nanoose Bay and teaches locally.
